

Isaiah: Holy One of Israel
“Future Hope, Present Repentance”
Isaiah 2:1-5; 5:1-7

Speaking to a proud and self-sufficient generation, the prophet contrasts their current struggles with the future hope offered by God. Trusting in possessions, social position, political power, or human accomplishments has never impressed God. Rather, He looks for humble people boldly devoting their lives to exalting the Lord alone. With these, He will create a people.
