Isaiah: Holy One of Israel

"Routine Worship, Sovereign God"

Isaiah 29:13-16; Jeremiah 18:1-12

Isaiah approaches the topic of worship now made routine, and therefore meaningless, by the empty and rote habits of a sleep-walking people. God rejects all worship not infused with personal relationship. He also reserves the right to confront His people according to His plan.

1. Ruin of Routine Worship (Isaiah 29:13-16)

- Routine Worship is No Worship at All (v.13)

- Real Worship Demands Personal Response (v.14)

- Rote Worship Receives Condemnation (vv.15, 16)

2. Sovereignty Illustrated (Jeremiah 18:1-12)

- Sovereignty is Not Arbitrary (vv.1-4)

- Sovereignty is Not Deterministic (vv.5-10)

- Sovereignty is Not Hopeless (vv.11, 12)
